

Subject: Shutdown avoided; appeal rights for more postal employees; broadcast board CEO bails
From: GovExec Today <news@e.govexec.com>
Date: 3/4/2015 5:02 AM
To: ROBERT SMUDDE <robert.smudde@gsa.gov>

Problems viewing? View as a web page

GovExec Today

March 4, 2015

No Shutdown: DHS Stalemate Finally Ends // Daniel Newhauser

In "unmitigated loss for conservatives," House approves bill to fund the department for the fiscal year.

Lawmakers Look to Give More Postal Employees Appeal Rights // Eric Katz

Postal group says bill would fix misunderstanding from 1987.

Brought to you by SAP

Attend the SAP Federal Forum

Join public sector professionals on March 12 for a day of in-depth discussions on how agencies can use powerful analytics and big data to cast off complexity and simplify.

Be inspired by thought leaders like former Navy SEAL Commander Rorke T. Denver of the hit film Act of Valor, executives from the U.S. Army, State of Indiana, and more who are tapping powerful new technologies to innovate.

Register now.

New Broadcast Board CEO Bails After Just Six Weeks // Charles S. Clark

Andy Lack says he'll take a job at NBC, blogger reports.

Feds Say They Finally Have a Database of Every Cyber Job in Government // Jack Moore

Federal cyberwarriors hail from more than 100 different job categories scattered across agencies.

Hillary Clinton Not Alone in Using Private Emails to Govern // Charles S. Clark

Government Executive survey shows a third of high-level executives see it done.

Think Tanks' New Data Tool Details U.S. State Population Trends // Timothy B. Clark

The new "States of Change" report documents dramatic shifts in America's demographic future.

White House: Don't Ask Us About Hillary Clinton's Email Use // Priscilla Alvarez

Josh Earnest said Tuesday that it's up to the State Department to handle how its employees use email correspondence to conduct official work.

What Clinton's Email Habits Reveal About Federal Records Laws // Hallie Golden

Federal regulations don't outright ban the use of personal email accounts to conduct official government business.

Congressman Demands Names of Local Government Staffers, Hints at Prosecution // Michael Grass

Conflict over the introduction of legalized marijuana in the nation's capital has strained the complicated relationship between the D.C. government and Capitol Hill.

Study: Three to Five Cups of Coffee a Day is Good For the Arteries // Cassie Werber

Coffee lovers had the clearest arteries.

El Paso Makes Filling Potholes Look So Easy // Michael Grass

Winter-weary drivers may not want to watch this.

House Passes Bill Allowing VA Secretary to Claw Back Bonuses // Kellie Lunney

Legislation allows employees to ask for a third-party review of secretary's decision.

Brought to you by SAP

Attend the SAP Federal Forum

Join public sector professionals on March 12 for a day of in-depth discussions on how agencies can use powerful analytics and big data to cast off complexity and simplify.

Be inspired by thought leaders like former Navy SEAL Commander Rorke T. Denver of the hit film Act of Valor, executives from the U.S. Army, State of Indiana, and more who are tapping powerful new technologies to innovate.

Register now.

GOVERNMENT EXECUTIVE // CUSTOMER SERVICE // CONTACT US // PRIVACY POLICY // UNSUBSCRIBE

This message was sent from Government Executive to robert.smudde@gsa.gov. You have been sent GovExec Today because you have opted in to receive it. Note: It may take our system up to two business days to process your unsubscribe request and during that time you may receive one or two more newsletters. Thank you for reading GovExec Today.

Government Executive Media Group, 600 New Hampshire Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20037